San Mateo County has impaneled three civil grand juries that examined the Coastside Fire Protection District. The top conclusion of the most recent: "the residents of the CFPD are being well served by Cal Fire and Cal Fire deserves the full support of the CFPD Board, based upon performance, cost effectiveness and flexibility." The other juries agreed.

TriData is the independent national consulting company that the Fire Board selected to conduct an operational review of the CFPD. Their conclusion: "Cal Fire is a nationally recognized organization with excellent resources. The District is receiving excellent service at a lower cost than if provided independently."

Clay Lambert of the Half Moon Bay Review wrote that the Fire Board is "putting the district into reverse, toward another dysfunctional, expensive, crony-filled department".

One after another, citizens have spoken at CFPD Board meetings, vigorously objecting to Cal Fire’s dismissal. Our community deserves a Board that listens to its citizens.

If elected, I will immediately vote to restore our contract with Cal Fire. For detailed information about this situation, including my own biography and list of endorsers, please visit www.KeepCalFire.org. You are also welcome to call me at (650) 440-7955.

Thank you,

- Harvey
