ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF MEASURE X

Our school classrooms are bursting at the seams! To reduce student overcrowding in our San Mateo and Foster City schools and replace outdated, aging portables vote YES on X.

YES on X provides the additional classrooms in San Mateo and Foster City that:

✓ Reduce class sizes districtwide by addressing increasing student enrollment
✓ Relieve overcrowding in both San Mateo and Foster City elementary and middle schools
✓ Improve the learning and teaching environment for all teachers and students

YES on X replaces aging and outdated portables in our District
YES on X improves classroom/school access for students with disabilities
YES on X ensures all students and families have equal access to our excellent, award-winning schools

Measure X is Fiscally Accountable:

✓ YES on X ensures both San Mateo and Foster City are getting their FAIR SHARE of funds from this measure.
✓ Every penny of Measure X funding is required to benefit LOCAL SCHOOLS. Funds cannot be taken by Sacramento politicians!
✓ Measure X includes tough fiscal accountability and taxpayer safeguards to ensure funds are spent as promised, including Independent Citizens' Oversight and public reports to the community, to ensure all funds are spent as promised to our parents and taxpayers.
✓ NO money can be spent on administrators' salaries.
✓ With historic low interest rates, now is the time to upgrade and add classrooms to our schools, before these projects cost taxpayers more in the future.

Join a unanimous Board of Education, teachers, parents, PTA leaders, education advocates, San Mateo and Foster City officials, and thousands of stakeholders who helped develop Measure X. Vote YES on X to improve our classrooms and schools!
